CHAMPIONS LIST

"A Dual Language School"

Fellsmere Elementary School

FES EXTRACURRICULAR PROGRAMS

Soccer Social (4th & 5th grade):

Assisting both boys and girls with their self-esteem, coping skills, and working as a team, the Soccer Social also makes sure students maintain good grades and attendance.

Chorus Club:

Musical Mustangs come together with song and dance. The chorus club gives students confidence to reach their full potential while exploring dance, singing, percussion instruments and more.

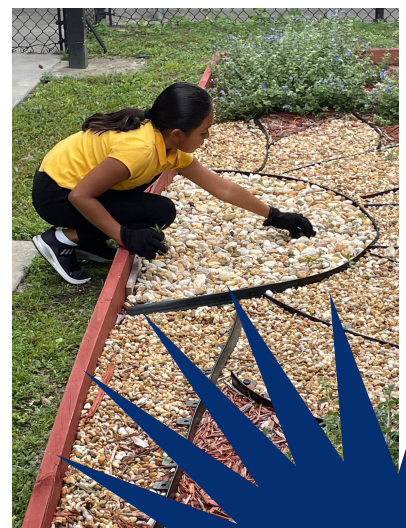

Discovery Kids:

Targeting students who have come from other countries, discovery kids assists with the familiarization of rules, culture, and routines of our school; It gives them a sense of belonging while promoting togetherness.

Garden Club:

Fostering a sense of pride, our garden club helps students learn to care about what they have. FES has beautification days so students can learn about plants and how to care for them, and learn the responsibility of taking care of the grounds. FES has partnerships with outside agencies, demonstrating to students our sense of community.

FES EXTRACURRICULAR PROGRAMS

Peer 2 Peer:

The Peer 2 Peer program targets African American, Hispanic, and American cultures, as a whole. It promotes cultural values. IB students from SRHS become mentors to our K through 5th grade students. The program focuses on SEL, academics, problem solving skills, and attendance issues. It motivates students to want to improve themselves and want to belong to FES school.

Junior Deputy:

Students work with law enforcement officers and are deputized through the knowledge and display of following the rules. It promotes a healthy sense of citizenship and responsibility.

Act of Kindness (AOK) Committee:

Targeting SEL and PBIS skills, the AOK Committee brings cheer to Fellsmere. They make positive impacts through community service, being good role models, and showing positive behavior. They are provided an opportunity for leadership at the school, so that their positivity can be spread throughout our school culture.

Safety Patrol:

The FES safety patrols program illustrates the SEL and PBIS skills within our students. It promotes leadership and school wide expectation.

FES EXTRACURRICULAR PROGRAMS

Drug Awareness/Bullying Prevention Program:

Giving the students the knowledge of the dangers of drugs, vaping, and bullying, FES's Drug Awareness & Bullying Prevention Program is extensive. Activities run through the year including The FES police presentations, Red Ribbon Week, and classroom talks.

Good Morning FES Mustangs:

Announcers promote our FES school wide expectations, inspirational quotes, deep thinking, learning skills, and confidence on a daily basis through our morning announcements. This program gives students the opportunity to research ideas, vocalize themselves in meaningful ways, and take ownership of being part of the community.

Straight Talk at the Library:

The 5th grade boys and girls are given lessons on manners, respect, and self-esteem.

Art Club:

Students with artistic abilities bring their creativity to life through art.

Track and Field:

Taking pride in school, teamwork, and healthy competition with other schools.

Boys Club:

The Boys Club focuses on boys' topics, manners, self-esteem, making good choices and peer pressure.

Girls Against Drama:

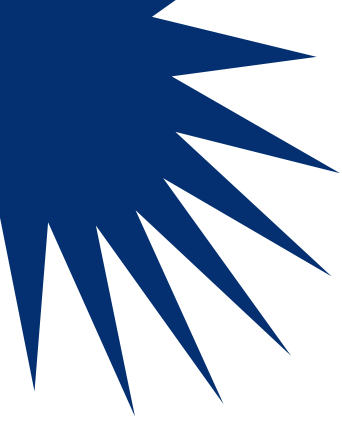

This is a girls' club that focuses on using skills to help with the drama the girls create. It focuses on girl issues, self-esteem, peer pressure and making good choices.

Lunch a Bunch:

Boys and girls, grades 3rd-5th have their own groups that focuses on SEL relevant to their own uniqueness.

5th Grade Peer Mentoring:

FES 5th grade peer mentors work with K and 1st grade students. They work one on one, in groups, or practice certain skills with low achieving students.
